

MEDIA CONTACT

Yasmin Ruvalcaba
yasmin@ageinthearts.org
509.987.6679 cell

Advance Gender Equity in the Arts Announces the 2018 AGE Equity Grants

Phase 1 Application: February 1-28, 2018

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Portland, Oregon, January 16, 2018 – Advance Gender Equity in the Arts (AGE) is awarding a total of $40,000 in grants to Portland area professional theatre companies that are committed to advancing intersectional gender equity. Now in its third year, AGE has raised $100,000 for Portland theatres to include women in their equity lens.

“Time’s up! Women’s stories deserve to be told. Women deserve to be seen, heard, validated, and respected. AGE is grateful to the many donors who make these grants possible. We are proud of the Portland Arts community for making intersectional gender equity a priority. Equity benefits everyone.” –Jane Vogel, AGE Founder/President.

Information about the 2018 AGE Equity Grants is available on the AGE website: ageinthearts.org. Theatre companies are invited to submit the Phase 1 Application (Intent to Apply) February 1-28, 2018, available on the AGE website.

2018 AGE Equity Grants

Phase 1 Application

ageinthearts.org/awards-apply/

Timeline:

February 1-28, 2018 Phase 1 Application

July 2018: Recipients notified and grants funded

(more)

About Advance Gender Equity in the Arts

Advance Gender Equity in the Arts (AGE) is a social justice nonprofit organization whose mission is to advance intersectional gender equity in the arts.

Founded in 2014 by Portland actor and activist Jane Vogel, AGE advocates for equity, diversity and inclusion in the arts.

AGE is offering grants to support intersectional gender equity. AGE has community engagement programs to empower underrepresented voices. AGE is planning a 2020 Women's Equity Initiative to inspire all arts entities to include women in artistic leadership roles.

Advance Gender Equity in the Arts

Raise Awareness • Facilitate Transformation • Advance Equity

ageinthearts.org

#