

-Eligibility-

Advance Gender Equity in the Arts (AGE) is offering 2020 AGE Equity Grants ranging from $5,000 to $20,000 for theatre companies that meet the following eligibility criteria:

- Not-for-profit, professional theatre company
- Current 501(c)(3) tax exempt status in the state of Oregon
- Located in Portland-metro area, Portland, Oregon
- Present no fewer than three fully staged shows (or the equivalent) per season
- Have presented at least three seasons of three or more fully staged shows (or the equivalent) prior to application deadline
- Have submitted an Intent to apply (ITA) by February, 2020 and received approval for submission
- A company is not eligible for one year if the company received more than $20,000 in AGE grant funding in the past two consecutive years.

Advance Gender Equity in the Arts (AGE) is offering 2020 AGE Equity Grants ranging from $1,000 to $10,000 for theatre companies that meet the following eligibility criteria:

- Not-for-profit professional theatre company
- Current 501(c) (3) tax exempt status in the state of Oregon
- Located in Portland-metro area, Portland, Oregon
- Have produced at least three staged production in the past four seasons
- Have completed the Intent to Apply (ITA) form by February, 2020 and received approval for submission
- A company is not eligible for one year if the company received more than $10,000 in AGE grant funding in the past two consecutive years.

-Criteria-

Applicants are evaluated based on their organization's efforts to:

- Include women in artistic leadership roles (playwriting, directing, acting, designing)
- Increase safety for women in the workplace by raising awareness of sexism, misogyny, and micro-aggressions against women, as well as implementing policies and practices that protect women
- Change attitudes and stereotypes that perpetuate ageism for women in theatre
- Address race as a paramount intersection in gender equity
- Advance intersectional gender equity through a social justice model that includes collaboration with other theatres and community groups, extending equity work beyond the four walls of the theatre
- Utilize AGE grant funding to benefit women in theatre