

MEDIA CONTACT
Yasmin Ruvalcaba
Yasmin@ageinthearts.org

www.ageinthearts.org

Advance Gender Equity in the Arts (AGE) Launches the 2019 AGE Equity Grants

Intent to Apply: January 15-February 8

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - Portland, Oregon, January 14, 2019 – Advance Gender Equity in the Arts (AGE) is awarding a total of $50,000 in grants to Portland area professional theatre companies that are committed to empowering womxn in theatre.

Information about the 2019 AGE Grants is available on the AGE website: ageinthearts.org. Theatre companies are invited to submit an Intent to Apply from January 15-February 8, 2019.

The application window is open February 15- April 15, 2019 for those companies that have met the eligibility criteria, completed the Intent to Apply form by February 8, 2019, and have been approved to apply for the AGE Equity Grants.

“Whose stories are told in theatre and why? This question must be at the center of all creators and consumers of art. The stories in theatre have been dominated by white patriarchy. It is time for a new vision, a new paradigm that reflects the truth about humanity.” –Jane Vogel, AGE Founder/President.

2019 AGE Equity Grants

Intent to Apply:

advancegenderequityinthearts.submittable.com/submit

Timeline:

January 15-February 8, 2019 Intent to Apply

February 12 – April 12, 2019 Application window open

April 12, 2019, 5:00pm: Application window close date

April 15- June 2, 2018: Application review

July 2016: Recipients notified

(more)

About Advance Gender Equity in the Arts (AGE)

Advance Gender Equity in the Arts is a social justice nonprofit organization whose mission is to empower all womxn across the lifespan in the arts.

Founded in 2014 by Portland actor and activist Jane Vogel, AGE seeks to humanize the arts through equity, diversity and inclusion. Equity benefits everyone.

AGE is partnering with Portland theatres by offering grants that will help increase leadership opportunities for womxn in theatre. AGE has community engagement programs to empower underrepresented voices. AGE Equity Grants are funded by the generous support of private donors/investors.

Advance Gender Equity in the Arts

Raise Awareness • Facilitate Transformation • Advance Equity

.ageinthearts.org

#